

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

A common but deadly mistake people make is forgetting that everything that we have, including our life, is not really ours. Everything belongs to God and is given to us by God. And as the rightful owner, the Savior will hold us accountable for how we utilize what He has given us. This truth is most vividly confirmed in this week's Gospel reading. \(continue\)