

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

This Sunday's Gospel reading gives us a vivid picture of how to differentiate between following the letter of God's law and understanding its spirit. We see an example what Scripture means when we read that "the letter (of the law) kills, but the Spirit gives life" (2Cor: 3:6) (continue)